

Walking in Massachusetts

Ashley Reservoir in Holyoke

Special tips for this location: Parking is at the Elks parking lot at 250 Whitney Ave, Holyoke, MA. Parking is prohibited between dusk and dawn. Park near the entrance gate and walk onto the gravel trail to start your walk. To keep water clean please no dogs, horseback riding, camping, smoking, sledding and motorcycle riding. No published map so have your all trails app ready.

Highlights of this space include that this location is the secondary drinking supply for the city of Holyoke and it has a beautiful scenic walk through the middle of the reservoir. This is a hidden gem!

Lace up your hiking boots, if using mosquito and tick spray, spray before heading on the trails, if it's warm, dress in layers, grab a snack and water – ENJOY!

For a visual on google maps, click here.

“If we surrendered to earth’s intelligence we could rise up rooted, like trees. ”

– Rainer Maria Rilke