

SUCCEEDING AS A NEW DPW SUPERVISOR

Friday, September 28, 2018
9:00 am - 3:00 pm
Wayland Town Building, 1st floor
41 Cochituate Road, Wayland, MA 01778

DESCRIPTION

This one-day session introduces new supervisors to the skills and abilities they will need to manage their work as well as the work of those who report to them. Topics include communicating, delegating, organizational skills, teamwork, motivating crew members and dealing with conflict. The goal of this workshop is to enhance participants' professionalism and confidence.

PRESENTER

Rockie Blunt, Ed.D.

Rockie Blunt is president of Blunt Consulting Group, a West Boylston-based firm that offers management and organizational communications training and consulting services to companies and organizations throughout New England. He has worked extensively with municipal and state agencies, and has built a reputation as a lively speaker who delivers informative seminars.

Who Should Attend

The program is open to all foremen or supervisors who are responsible for the day-to-day management of field operations for their towns. Whether you are a new supervisor or someone who hopes to achieve that position in the future, you will benefit from this program.
