

OSHA 10 For Construction Two-Day Training

Agenda

- Welcome
- Introduction to OSHA
- Safety and Health Programs
- Health Hazards
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Fall Prevention and Protection
- Stairs and Ladders
- Electrical
- Struck-by and Caught In-between
- Material Handling
- Excavations
- Tools

Participation in this 2 day training qualifies the MIIA member for 1% Rewards credit under the Workers Compensation Category. Must attend both days to receive credit.

DATE

Tuesday & Wednesday
May 20 & 21
8:00 AM- 2:00 PM
Registration/Breakfast 7:30 am
Lunch included

LOCATION

School Administration Office
872 South Street,
Barre, MA 01005.

REGISTER HERE

Registration for day one of this training automatically registers you for day 2

PRESENTER

Kimlee Lindgren, MS,
CHST

Kimlee is currently the Senior Risk Management Trainer for the Massachusetts Interlocal Insurance Association (MIIA). She has enjoyed various positions in the safety and health profession for over 43 years. Her expertise is in construction, maritime, education, insurance, and regulatory compliance. She has also been developing curriculum, and serving as an industry director and instructor for the OSHA Education Center for 33 years.

