

Overview of Title IX: Handling Sexual Harassment Complaints in K-12 Schools

Wednesday, September 27, 2023
 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.
 Virtual Training
Register

To receive an attendance certificate for this training you must participate individually and on camera. If you do not have a camera on your computer, you may use the zoom app on your phone..

This workshop will provide an overview of the Title IX complaint process under the governing 2020 regulations. It will cover required school policy definitions, including of Sexual Harassment; what constitutes Notice to Schools/Notice to Parties; Roles of T.IX Coordinator & Team Members; the Grievance Process & Procedures, including due process issues; and Training Mandates.

The workshop will also provide a preview of anticipated 2023 amendments to the regulations.

Audience: School Superintendents, Asst. Superintendents, Principals, Asst. Principals, Title IX Coordinators & Team Members, Teachers, Human Resource personnel, School Resource Officers, School Business Officials, Athletic Directors, School Committee members, and anyone else involved in the T.IX process.

Attendance at this seminar qualifies the MIIA member for .5% credit under the FY24 MIIA Rewards Program under Public Officials Liability, School Board Liability or Law Enforcement Liability

About the Presenter

JUDY LEVENSON Judy Levenson is Principal at the Law Office of Judy Levenson. She is an experienced attorney, investigator and trainer in the areas of schools and education law, civil rights, and municipal and ethics law. She is ATIXA-Certified to serve as a K-12 Title IX Consultant/Trainer, Investigator, Hearing Officer and Decision-Maker. Judy provides customized legal compliance training programs about Title IX and other civil rights and school law issues. Additionally, she conducts impartial, external investigations of complaints of Title IX violations, discrimination and bullying and serves as an independent hearing officer in administrative proceedings. Judy's pragmatic approach is informed by her prior work in the Civil Rights Division of the Mass. Attorney General's Office, as General Counsel to the State Ethics Commission and as a partner with Brody, Hardoon, Perkins & Kesten, LLP.

